

Criteria For Eligibility For The Reedsburg High School Hall of Fame

(Athletes)

1. The individual must be a graduate of Reedsburg High School.
2. The individual is eligible if he/she was a state champion or place winner in a individual sport.
3. The individual is eligible if he/she received recognition as all-state in their sport.
4. The individual is eligible if he/she was a multiple year or sport all-conference selection.
5. The individual is eligible if he/she was a multiple letter winner.
6. The individual must be out of school for at least five years.

(Coaches)

1. Head coach tenure of 5 years
2. Assistant coach tenure of 10 years
3. Head coaches that are a member of their state association HOF will be automatically placed on Reedsburg Coaches HOF Ballot for possible induction.
4. Coaches can be presently active as a coach when placed on the ballot
5. The programs or individual within the programs of nominated coaches must demonstrate or have demonstrated some consistent above average level of success at the conference level
6. Consistent above average levels of success at the regional, sectional and state levels will result in strong consideration.

Nomination process: (Athletes & Coaches)

- Nominators are not restricted to athletes, coaches or school personnel
- Nomination information should clearly address criteria above
- Nomination information should at minimum include any and all accolades related to high school involvement.
- Nomination information may included post high school achievements and accolades but it is not mandatory
- Nomination information should clearly state who the nominator is and contact information.
- Nomination information should contact current contact information of the nominee and/or family
- Nomination information should be submitted to the RHAS activities director prior to Dec. 31 of each calendar year.
- HOF elections will be conducted in late February or early March of each school year.
- HOF induction will take place at the annual half time of a home football game.
- Send or email ATHLETE nomination form (provide nomination qualifications on form)
- Email nominations for Coaches HOF (provide nomination qualifications on email)

Email nominations / Forms to: Bryan Yager byager@rsd.k12.wi.us